

The VIBRA Skincare line was created with the aim of offer the best possible synergy between cosmeceutical products and technologies made by Do Well Technologies: Vibra B and Vibra Th with selective vibrations, and Velvety with scanning light optimized OELS.

The entire line consists of advanced products, perfectly tuned with the technologies with which they are combined, able to amplify the results.

It is characterized by sophisticated technology at the service of beauty, based on the formula Intelligent Care System.

They are cosmetics that can effectively combat the signs of aging. The revolutionary novelty is the use of functional substances known as bio-intelligent substances that act in completely autonomous way, localizing as a GPS the focal point of the imperfections and working on them with an intensive and profound action.

Bio-intelligent cosmetics work as a beauty laboratory equipped with the most modern computer systems.

The result is a precise, targeted and specific treatment, but above all personalized for the type of imperfection on which to act, in particular by contrasting the signs caused by the passage of time.

The elixir of youth is the innovative Intelligent Care System, which combines the best of nature and research in the dermocosmetic field.

The microspheres of Dehydrated Hyaluronic Acid, with high and low molecular weight, capture the water that normally evaporates from the skin and acting as a sort of “molecular sponge”, swell and increase in volume. In this way they exert a pressure that pushes the epidermis upwards, thus reducing the deeper wrinkles with an authentic filler effect.

Hyaluronic Acid Liposomids, microscopic spheres consisting of alternating layers of fat and water that facilitate penetration into the skin, help to reduce wrinkles giving volume and exerting a moisturizing, smoothing and restructuring action.

They give the skin a more youthful and relaxed appearance.

Native Plant Cells derived from a rare variety of Swiss apples provide important substances and improve the vitality and health of human stem cells. They protect from UV rays and preserve the youthful appearance of the skin. They combat premature aging and preserve youth.

The Liquid Crystal emulsifier derived from olive oil thanks to its chemical-physical characteristics similar to those of the epidermis, integrates perfectly into the skin barrier, reinforcing its integrity.

Significantly increases the delivery of functional substances and skin hydration. Leaves the skin soft and silky.

Stabilized Vitamin C has an inhibiting effect on melanogenesis, protects against phototoxicity and stimulates collagen synthesis.

In the form of micro lipid it has a structure similar to cell membranes, prolongs its bioavailability and has better absorption on the skin.
